XV. Discussion Items
Chief Executive Officer selection process was discussed. The Special Trustee reported that Title V regulations require that an interim position (CEO) an entity of the District, can maintain that position for one year. Under extraordinary circumstances that time may be extended for one additional year for a maximum period of 2 years. Title V also allows for a waiver that process. The Special Trustee is allowed to request this waiver which must be approved by the Board of Governors. It is important that the District maintain continuity with the CEO, as well as the Special Trustee and the partner. It is disingenuous to those who may apply and to the system, if in fact, you have a leader you have embraced and you want to maintain continuity through evaluations and make sure the quality is there. The Special Trustee solicited comments from the elected board.

Dr. LeBlanc: Commended Dr. Curry’s leadership thus far, but requested that the Special Trustee delay the request for waiver for about six months because she would like to see the interim CEO serve the five years of executive management years that are traditional in executive management of community colleges.
Trustee Ramos: Feels lucky to have Dr. Curry in the interim CEO position, and gives his full support to the Special Trustee to request the waiver of the requirement to search for someone else.

Trustee Cervantes: Agrees totally with Dr. LeBlanc, however, this is not a normal situation. In trying to prepare for accreditation we do need to consider the continuity of leadership. Dr. Curry is well received on campus, at El Camino, by the elected board, the Special Trustee, and the community. Feels the interim CEO should be given the opportunity to prove himself.

The Special Trustee stated that he appreciated the sensitive discussion and comments.

XVIII. Oral Reports

A. Compton Center
   Barbara Perez, Vice President Compton Center, reported that the spring semester will begin on February 11, 2012 and FLEX days will be February 8-9, 2012. The Accreditation Commission has posted the results of their January meeting. Two other community colleges have been put on “show cause”, which is the first step towards revocation of accreditation. One of the problems that is coming out in the reports is the failure to make progress in Student Learning Outcomes. New faculty will be hired this semester for Art History, Reading/English, Communication studies, History, Nursing, Football coach, counselor, and an Instructional Specialist.

B. Interim CEO Report – Dr. Keith Curry
   Dr. Curry reported that Redistricting Committee and also the Special Trustee’s Advisory Committee met last week and elected officers. He also commented on the Maintenance and Operations staff schedule change to have three shifts for 24-hour coverage. This will begin on March 5, 2012. The 2010-2011 District Audit will be presented at our Special Board meeting on February 15, 2012. On March 20, 2012 the Bond Audit will be presented.
C. Board of Trustees’ Reports

Trustee LeBlanc: Reported that she had attended the CCLC Legislative Conference in Sacramento last month, which addressed budget concerns and fiscal matters. Because of budget cuts class offerings will have to be reduced. She thanked Dr. Curry for attending the African American Caucus meeting. Toured the campus and is pleased with the way it looks and commends the faculty, staff and all the other people who keep things going here.

Trustee Cervantes: Requested that any members of the Advisory Committee, the Oversight Committee and the Redistricting Committee to please introduce themselves.

- Mr. Oscar Edwards – Advisory Committee
- Mrs. Marie Hollis, President to Save Compton College – Advisory Committee
- Mr. Bruce Boyden – Bond Oversight Committee

Trustee Cervantes also requested monthly updates on contractor services. She requested a copy of the deed that shows who this property belongs to and also stated that El Camino College’s name should not be on the Baseball Academy. Ms. Cervantes asked that the elected board be allowed to vote on board issues.

Trustee Ramos: Reported that he attended the CCLC Legislative Conference last month and it was very informative. The main focus was on the budget and things do not look good. Trustee Ramos requested information on what we offer veterans on this campus.

D. Special Trustee Report – Thomas E. Henry: Commented on the two institutions that are on “show cause” by the Accreditation Commission. This institution is a prototype for others in that we are the first to have had its accreditation revoked and to have partnered with another college. Mr. Henry reported that he met with President Fallo and Barbara Beno; it was a very substantive meeting.

E. Meeting Adjourned at 8:45 p.m.

XIX. Special Board Meeting scheduled for February 15, 2012

Summary Total $0.00

Summary of Transfers:

Total Transfer Amount - $687,554.37

- Transfers completed to distribute Bond Fund dollars in anticipation of vendor payments for ATT Contract Services, Site Improvements, and New Equipment (Non - Instructional). These transfers are for the MIS Stabilization Project.
General:

The following disposition of Surplus Personal Property (“Property”) is guided by Education Code section 81450 et seq. and advice of legal counsel Atkinson, Andelson, Loya, Ruud & Romo (AALRR) regarding the requirements for disposition of surplus personal property.

Situation:

The attached Property list (“Exhibit A”) is a collection of District assets acquired over the last four to five decades, which after meeting and conferring with Program Administrators, were determined to no longer be of any use to educational programs or student success. Staff estimates that none of the individual items exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) in value and the total value of items listed ranges from eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000) to twenty-three thousand dollars ($23,000). The Property was stored in the Maintenance and Operations Barn, Yard and Allied Health Building, but must be cleared out to make room for the Infrastructure Phase One Utility project set to start in April 2012. Last month the Board approved the use of Joe Tadlock (“Auctioneer”) to facilitate a public auction. If this agenda item is approved, the Auctioneer will advertise for two weeks locally and electronically and will facilitate the auction, item pick up and financial close out under the supervision of the District’s Interim CEO and with the Business Office. Maintenance and Operations, under the supervision of the District’s Interim CEO, will dispose of any remaining items.

Discussion:

The District owns certain Property as described above and in the attached Exhibit A. The Property is no longer needed for community college district purposes and is no longer satisfactory for community college district use.

California Education Code section 81452(a) provides that if the governing board of a community college district finds, by unanimous vote of those members present, that its surplus personal property does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) in value, it may be sold at private sale without advertising, by any employee of the community college district empowered for that purpose by the governing board of that community college district.

California Education Code section 81452(c) provides that if the governing board of a community college district finds, by unanimous vote of those members present, that its surplus personal property is of insufficient value to defray the costs of arranging a sale, the property may be disposed of in the local public dump on order of any employee of the community college district empowered for that purpose by the governing board of that community college district.

District staff recommends that the Board find that none of the individual items in the District’s Property exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) in value and that some of the District’s Property is of insufficient value to defray the costs of arranging a sale. District staff recommends that the Board delegate authority to the District’s Interim CEO, or his designee, to first work with the Auctioneer to attempt to sell the Property through the auction process described above and then, as appropriate, to (1) sell the remaining Property at private sale without advertising, pursuant to California Education Code section 81452(a); (2) donate the remaining Property to a charitable organization deemed appropriate by the Board, pursuant to California Education Code section 81452(c) or (3) dispose of the remaining Property in a manner proper for disposal of such Property, pursuant to California Education Code section 81452(c).

Recommended Actions:

It is recommended that the Special Trustee approves the following:

1. Find that Property is no longer needed for community college district purposes and is no longer satisfactory for community college district use and approve the attached Exhibit A for disposal based on Education code section 81450 et seq., and AALRR legal opinion.
2. Find, by unanimous vote of those Board members present, that none of the individual items in the District’s Property exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) in value.
3. Find, by unanimous vote of those Board members present, that some of the District’s Property is of insufficient value to defray the costs of arranging a sale.
4. Delegate authority to the District’s Interim CEO, or his designee, to first offer the Property at auction, in conjunction with the Auctioneer, and then, as appropriate, to (1) sell the remaining Property at private sale without advertising, pursuant to California Education Code section 81452(a); or (2) donate the remaining Property to a charitable organization deemed appropriate by the Board pursuant to California Education Code section 81452(c); or (3) to dispose of the remaining Property in a manner proper for disposal of such Property pursuant to California Education Code section 81452(c).

Fiscal Impact:

Income from the sale or disposition of the Property will be returned to the General Fund, because the sources of the original expenditures for the Property are unknown.

2B. EL CAMINO COLLEGE COMPTON CENTER SUCCESS AND RETENTION – INFORMATION

It is recommended that the Board receive for information the following report on Success and Retention rates at the Compton Center.

The success and retention rates for the Center are published at the end of each term. The public and students are able to access this information by visiting the Institutional Research website at www.elcamino.edu. The information is reported at three levels: division, department and course. The division structure used varies slightly from the Center structure.

The most recent data that is available is for fall 2011:

While the state average is not available for fall 2011, in fall 2010 the statewide success rate was 68.33% while Compton’s was 59.98% and the statewide retention rate was 84.68% while Compton’s was 75.46%. The Student Success committee is working on strategies to improve these numbers. To assist in this endeavor, we are recruiting for two key faculty positions, a full-time instructional specialist and a counselor with responsibilities for the First Year Experience.

We have evidence that the First Year Experience model improves student success and retention. In order to expand this program, it is necessary that more time is devoted to the development of the program, training of instructors and recruitment of students. Through the combined efforts of the new counselor and the Director of Outreach & School Relations, we should see some improvement in the numbers.

The Instructional Specialist will work in the Learning Resource Center and organize the functions to work in concert with the instructional programs and support services. This individual will take the lead on developing instructional intervention strategies for the retention of the underprepared and at-risk students as well as strategies for enhancing student learning at all levels. The specialist will work with faculty to help them design instructional materials and activities.

2C. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES – INFORMATION

It is recommended that the Board receive for information the following report on student learning outcomes at the Compton Center.

Under the leadership of the Student Learning Outcome (SLO) Coordinator, Ms. Chelvi Subramaniam and Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, Mr. David Vakil significant progress was made on the SLO assessment cycle. They facilitated a flex day event in Spring 2011 to help faculty identify assessment timelines and processes for un-assessed courses. During this time period, the percentage of courses assessed increased from 17% to 32% and percentage of programs assessed increased from 0 to 23%. It is important to note, that with the exception of assessment of Core Competencies, faculty at the Center conduct their own assessments of course and program SLOs. The faculty members at the Center join their colleagues at El Camino when the core competencies are being assessed.

XV. Deadlines and Current Assessment Levels

A. DEADLINES

The SLO leadership team, including Dr. Fazal Aasi and Dr. Michele Priest, established several intermediate goals and deadlines to ensure SLOs “are in place for courses [and] programs” and “comprehensive assessment reports exist and are completed and updated on a regular basis” by the end of Fall 2012. The SLO team developed the following target percentages for course-level SLO assessment:

B. CURRENT ASSESSMENT LEVELS

Overall, 48% of the 397 courses offered at the Center have been assessed as of the start of the spring 2012 semester. Adoption of the facilitator model used by El Camino to assist faculty resulted in a significant improvement in several areas. The Career & Technical Education division went from 26 courses assessed in August 2011 to 59 courses assessed. A similar improvement in the Social Science & Creative Performing Arts division was observed as the division went from 35 to 60 courses assessed. The Health & Human Services division has completed all their SLO statements and prepared a four-year assessment cycle that will be implemented this spring.

XVI. Areas for Improvement

While the SLO team has made significant progress in meeting both the internally and externally imposed goals, there is still much work to be done. Specific areas of improvement follow below.

A. CREATING ASSESSMENT TIMELINES

There are still 48 classes needing an assessment timeline. Nearly 70% of these 48 courses with unscheduled assessments are taught exclusively by part-time faculty. Comparing this to 112 courses still needing a timeline as of August 2011, we see that 57% of the Center’s offered courses without timelines have now been addressed, which is a significant improvement.

Despite this improvement, it falls short of the SLO team’s self-identified goal of setting a timeline for 90% (vs. 57%) of these courses. The nature of the problem (i.e. courses being taught only by adjuncts) was not fully understood when the 90% goal was developed. This goal will be revised in the near future in consideration of this larger-than-expected challenge. The Facilitators will also continue to work with all faculty (full-time and part-time) to ensure student learning outcomes are assessed on a regular basis.

B. OVERDUE ASSESSMENTS

Similarly, there are 70 classes with currently overdue assessment reports and there were 55 courses overdue in August 2011. While 28 of these 55 courses with overdue assessments were completed in Fall 2011, it is still well-short of our self-imposed target of 80% completion (44 courses). As before, the nature of the problem (i.e. courses not being offered or being taught only by adjuncts) was not fully understood when the goal was developed, and the assessment timelines will be soon adjusted to match scheduled course offerings.

For example, nine of the 13 overdue PE courses were not offered in Fall 2011, so it was not possible to complete these assessments despite those assessments being overdue. On the other hand, some departments have had a consistent problem submitting SLO reports. The SLO Facilitators believe they are nearing the point where administrative oversight and enforcement is probably necessary.

C. PROGRAM-LEVEL SLO ASSESSMENT

Most of the focus of the SLO team has been on course-level SLO assessment. While the curriculum at ECC and the Compton Center are identical, in Spring 2011 some programs at the Center were consolidated together to make program-related workloads more manageable to the faculty. However, in the year since this consolidation was undertaken, the Center has begun an analysis of which programs are consistent with the recently developed goals in the Educational Master Plan. This analysis has led to two programs being suspended indefinitely and to the suggestion to re-examine what constitutes a “program” at the Center. A recent meeting of the Accreditation Steering Subcommittee on Instruction endorsed this re-examination. For any new or recently consolidated programs, the program will need to create, assess, and reflect on appropriate program-level SLO statements. This will need to be a high priority between now and the end of Fall 2012.

D. ACTION ITEMS

The SLO Facilitators are now focusing on courses with overdue assessments; their second priority is creating an assessment timeline for courses and programs without such a timeline. The Academic Affairs area will work with faculty leaders to redefine what constitutes a “program” at the Center.

XVII. Summary

Over the past two years, the Compton Center has made significant progress implementing a continuous cycle of assessing student learning. During the 2011 calendar year, specific goals and intermediate deadlines were established to help the Center achieve SLO “proficiency” as defined by the ACCJC. If work continues at the current pace, the faculty at the Center will exceed an internally imposed deadline of assessing 70% of all courses by the end of Spring 2012. The accomplishments described above have been made, in large part, due to the commitment of the SLO Facilitators. This SLO leadership team has been carefully monitoring progress in each division, department, and course and the team continues to target assistance to those areas that need it most.
3A. 2011-2012 BUDGET REDUCTIONS

It is recommended that the Special Trustee receives for information the 2011-2012 Budget Reductions Proposal.

2011-2012 MID-YEAR BUDGET REDUCTIONS PROPOSAL

1. The Compton Community College District 2011-12 Budget was approved by the Special Trustee on Tuesday, October 18, 2011. The chart below outlines the revenue amounts from the adopted budget in comparison to the actual State Apportionment, as of February 15, 2012.

<tr>
<td>TOTAL</td>

<td>28,921,143</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. The difference between the District’s adopted budget and the actual State Apportionment is $2,129,041.

3. The State Apportionment amount includes transferring expenses associated with the Special Trustee, into a restricted fund. For the 2011-2012 fiscal year, the District estimates that amount to be $645,000.

4. After the Special Trustee expenses are subtracted from the difference, the Compton Community College District will need to reduce expenses for the remainder of the 2011-12 fiscal year by a minimum amount of $1,484,041.

5. To reach this reduction amount, the Compton Community College District will decrease the reserve for contingency by an additional $797,000. On Thursday, March 15, 2012, the District is implementing a spending freeze on all unrestricted funds. With the implementation of a spending freeze, the District will be targeting to reduce unrestricted fund expenditures by $1,000,000.

6. With the reduction in the reserve for contingency of $797,000, and the reduction in unrestricted fund expenditures of at least $1,000,000, the District will reduce expenses by a minimum of $1,797,000; and maintain a reserve for contingency balance of $1,800,000.
7. Once the spending freeze is implemented, any exceptions for Academic/Student Services expenditures must be approved by Ms. Barbara Perez, Vice President Compton Center. All other exceptions must be approved by Dr. Keith Curry, Chief Executive Officer, prior to processing.
