Education Code Sections 66030; 66250, et seq.; 72010 et seq.

Title 5, Section 45220

All students who can benefit from the educational programs and services at the Compton Community College District, regardless of educational background, ethnicity, culture, nationality, language, disability, gender, sexual orientation, or religion and skills or ethnic or cultural heritages shall be provided the necessary services and support to achieve their educational goals. Accordingly, the Compton Community College District is committed to student equity and fosters academic excellence for all students by providing a teaching and learning environment that is welcoming, supportive, and accessible to all participants so they are able to meet their educational goals.

The CEO or designee shall establish and implement a student equity plan that meets the Title 5 standards for such a plan.
