I hear a lot of bad things. I tried to apply, I was in the middle, and it was very hard to get classes. The teachers don't care too much about the education of the students. From what I've heard from my friend, they just go to work for pay. It's not dangerous, but is difficult for the system. On my side, I do not ask for financial aid, but the inconvenience and the people that work there are very unhelpful. So, I pick up a different school.
